

AIBI CONGRESS MANCHESTER ENGLAND 30 MAY - 2 JUNE 2019 BAKERY OF THE FUTURE

ABOUT THE CONGRESS

Date: 30 May to 2 June 2019

Location: Manchester, England

Venue: The Midland Hotel, Manchester

The 36th AIBI Congress will be held from 30 May to 2 June 2019 in Manchester, England. Manchester has been at the forefront of the Industrial Revolution since the 18th and 19th century and remains to this day, an innovative and vibrant city.

The programme will consider 'The Bakery of the Future' for which there is an exciting list of speakers drawn from various parts of the bakery and commercial world which will give delegates food for thought.

The Congress venue is the prestigious Midland Hotel where up to 200 European delegates are expected to participate in this major bakery congress. Alongside the conference agenda will be a range of social occasions giving the opportunity to renew personal contacts and establish new ones.

CONGRESS HIGHLIGHTS

- Presentations from leading industry and commercial speakers including Jonathan Warburton, Warburton's Bakery and Robb Mackie, American Bakers Association
- Unrivalled networking opportunities
- Exciting partner activity programme
- Gala dinner at the stunning Gorton Monastery

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

We are offering the opportunity to sponsor the Congress. Sponsorship will enable companies to network and meet contacts with leading bakery organisations located throughout Europe and beyond. Packages include exhibition space and the opportunity to deliver a presentation at the congress.

FURTHER INFORMATION

For further information about the Congress please visit the website:

www.aibi-congress2019.co.uk

For further information about sponsorship please contact the AIBI Congress 2019 event organisers: ce@weareclear.co.uk

The Midland Hotel

Jonathan Warburton

Gorton Monastery

Robb Mackie